

CareerBuilder Achieves Measureable Savings with Concur T&E Solutions

About CareerBuilder

Headquartered in Chicago, CareerBuilder is the largest online employment website in the U.S. with more than 24 million monthly unique visitors. CareerBuilder is a global leader in human capital solutions and operates in more than 60 markets worldwide, including Europe, Asia and South America. At CareerBuilder, sales professionals represent 40 percent of its employees. As such, they are frequent travelers—which means the ability to complete and approve expense reports 24/7 is imperative to employee success. With Concur, CareerBuilder employees have the flexibility and ease of use needed so their time can be spent focusing on driving revenue for the business..

CareerBuilder has benchmarked hotel rates in all of its major travel cities, alerts travelers when lower rates and fares are available for air and hotels, and directs travels to preferred vendors, resulting in superior compliance and savings

Purchase Card Integration

CareerBuilder launched Concur® Travel and Concur® Expense, which improved the traveler experience, therefore increasing compliance and enabling significant savings as well as optimizing controls around spend. Enhancements in the Concur mobile app further revolutionized the way CareerBuilder employees interact with the application.

The Concur solution integrated the company's P-Card, which resulted in substantial savings and enhanced control. E-receipts have improved T&E, accelerating processing times and accuracy. Automated reports helped finance managers better understand airline, hotel and car rental trends and make strategic decisions based on real-time insights. Plus, enhanced reporting services have allowed CareerBuilder to maximize data available in Cognos so that even the most complicated scenarios are simplified. The company has benchmarked hotel rates in all of its major travel cities, alerts travelers when lower rates and fares are available for air and hotels, and directs travels to preferred vendors, resulting in superior compliance and savings.
